

Walk the Plank – use of pier as catwalk makes Maritime Centre shine

July 31st, 2010 by robynquinn

4 comments »

Thursday July 29 was the very first Cowichan Bay fashion event to support the Ahoy! building campaign.

Cowichan Wooden Boat Society member Julie Salisbury provided a lively commentary for the line-up of beautiful clothes provided by Patryka Designs in Mill Bay and Victoria based designer Vanessa of Isadora Clothing. All pictures courtesy of CWBS member and photog Rachel Penney. Special guest and surprise runway chaperone, Capn Jack Sparrow, was played perfectly by our friend Denise Pearson.

Thanks go out to Island Savings for selling tickets.

Ladies and a few guys, enjoyed delicious appies including some mouthwatering Epicure treats from the BBQ. Lew Penney and Lynn Woodgate helped Epicure rep Mildred prepare elegant grilled veggies, fresh papaya salsa and spicy chicken.

